About Cristo Rey

The Cristo Rey Network of high schools delivers a career focused, college preparatory education in the Catholic tradition for students with limited economic resources. Through the unique integration of rigorous academic curricula, four years of professional work experience, and support to and through college, Cristo Rey students are achieving their aspirations for postsecondary success at rates exceeding their peers.

Who We Are:

- Values-Driven: We educate the whole student: academically, spiritually, and socio-emotionally.
- Growth Opportunities: We prioritize our faculty and staff's learning and growth.
- Invested Students and Engaged Families: Our students' families seek out our schools.
- National Community: Our faculty and staff are a proud part of a national movement.

Mission:

Cristo Rey OKC is a Catholic, college preparatory school that educates young people of limited economic means and all faiths to become men and women of knowledge, faith, purpose, and service.

Position Summary

As an innovating, dynamic, and mission-based school which values our faculty and students. - Design and implement assessments that measure progress towards academic standards.
- Use assessment data and inform instructional practices.
- Participate in collaborative curriculum development, grade-level activities, and school-wide functions.

- Provide consistent rewards and consequences for student behavior to establish and enforce rules of behavior for students in the classroom.
- Participate in an annual staff orientation and training.
- Prepare lessons, units, and projects to complete learning objectives in order to be accountable for students' mastery of academic standards.
- Establish and communicate clear objectives for lessons, units, and projects.
- Adapt teaching methods and materials to meet the interests and learning styles of students.
- Encourage students to explore learning opportunities and career paths.
- Create, assign, and grade various assessments for students, including tests, quizzes, essays, and projects.
- Work with students one-on-one when they need extra help or attention.
- Develop lesson plans and successfully instruct students in your subject area.

Who You Are

- For Students
 - Create and maintain a safe and student-centered learning environment which promotes education focused on faith, knowledge, purpose, and service with a rigorous curriculum focused on the whole student (physical, mental, social-emotional, and spiritual);
 - Establish and consistently administer high academic and personal expectations for students both in and out of one's classroom with supportive, college-focused measures.
- For Colleagues and Administrators
 - Respect one's colleagues and administrators in words and actions upholding the greater Cristo Rey OKC culture;
 - Collaborate to increase student success;
 - Seek to be builders of a community by
 - bringing forward evidence and solutions,
 - speaking honestly and engaging actively with equity for all members,
 - assuming positive intentions and take responsibility for impact
 - and actively listening with open ears, mind and heart.
- For Parents
 - Recognize the partnership between school and home as a crucial component of a student's experience in school;
 - Invest the time to develop and maintain relationships with families.
- For Oneself
 - Actively pursue professional development opportunities;
 - Commit to one's continued growth by being open and responsive to feedback;
 - Discuss with your supervisor any particular conditions that could make the culture of Cristo Rey OKC enjoyable and productive;
 - As much as possible, maintain some healthy balance of professional and personal time.
